

Bio - Prof. Mirjam Milharčič Hladnik

Prof. Mirjam Milharčič Hladnik is a Research Advisor at the Slovenian Migration Institute at the Research Center of the Slovenian Academy of Sciences and Arts in Ljubljana and Associate Professor at the University of Nova Gorica.

A passionate researcher of “the documents of life” (from migrant letters to testimonies and life stories) and specialist in migration and gender studies in Slovenia, she is the editor of From Slovenia to Egypt: Aleksandrinke's trans-Mediterranean domestic workers' migration and national imagination (2015) and the co-editor of Going places: Slovenian women's stories on migration (2014). She is the author of the screenplay for the documentary 100% Slovenian (2005) and Editor-in-Chief of the academic journal Dve domovini / Two Homelands.

She regularly participates in round tables and public discussions, not only those dealing with the questions about the Slovenian emigration, but also contemporary immigration to Slovenia connected to intercultural relationships and active citizenship.
